

Céad Míle Fáilte (Hundred thousand welcomes in Gaelic)

Dear Guest,

Welcome to the Station House Hotel Letterkenny. It is our pleasure to have you as our guest. We have made every effort to anticipate your needs to make your stay an enjoyable and memorable one.

Our goal is to provide you with the highest level of personal and professional service and our team are at your disposal 24hrs to ensure that all your requests are attended to.

We pride ourselves on our reputation for consistent reliable excellence coupled with a warm welcome and relaxing ambience.

The Station House Hotel is built on the grounds of where the Old Station House once stood when the railway system in County Donegal was in operation from 1901 to the 1940's. It was bought by the Gallagher family in 1953 four years after the last train passed the old building. It became their home and was lived in up until 2004 at which point it was demolished and developed into this hotel boasting 81 spacious bedrooms, the Depot Bar & Restaurant and conference & banqueting facilities.

The Depot Bar and Restaurant provides the perfect excuse for a pause and to pamper your palette. Delicious food is served throughout the day and evening 7 days a week. Our menus have something for everyone. Vegan and Gluten Free Menus are also available.

The hotel is conveniently located within walking distance from the high street shopping area, An Grianán Theatre and all the culture and nightlife that makes Letterkenny such a delight. Letterkenny offers year-round entertainment and it's the perfect base for exploring the diversity of County Donegal and all that it has to offer. There is an abundance of activities on our doorstep. For assistance with planning your day please contact our front desk team.

Thank you for choosing the Station House Hotel Letterkenny on this occasion and we look forward to welcoming you back in the near future.

Kindest Regards,

Brian Gallagher

Glenveagh National Park;

A 20 minutes' scenic drive from the Station House Hotel Letterkenny and tucked in close to the Derryveagh Mountains is a remote and an impressively stunning wilderness of rugged mountains, unspoiled lakes and beautiful waterfalls. This magnificent national park is the second largest park in Ireland and is set on acres of natural habitat and jaw dropping manicured gardens. There is a deer sanctuary on site, the Golden Eagle to meet visitors. It's absolutely stunning! Guided tours of the castle are available at allocated times: www.glenveaghnationalpark.ie Family events are organised for most weekends throughout the summer months and these include; children story time, bird of prey display, medieval weaponry display and more.

Ards Forest Park;

The park covers approximately 480 hectares (1200 acres) and includes a variety of habitats, among them sand dunes, beaches, salt marshes, salt water lakes, rock face and, of course, coniferous and deciduous woodlands. With such a variety of landscapes, it is possible to spend many hours exploring this wonderful park. The sea is one of the real treasures of this forest park and there are several trails, the Binngorm trail, the Salt Marsh Trail and the Sand Dune Trail, which offer the hiker an opportunity to experience it in all its facets. There are a large number of trails in this park giving the walker the opportunity to explore a variety of habitats from foreshore and sand dunes to semi natural oak woodlands on rock outcrops. By "stitching together" a number of trails, it is possible to hike for 5/6 hours on forest tracks and trails, taking in the full circuit of the park. The park is also home to a wide selection of animals and birds and the special hide at the end of the salt marsh trail allows the visitor to watch their winter visitors feed on the salt marsh. For those interested in human history, there are a number of historical and archaeological features. There are the remains of four ring forts together with a holy well and a mass rock.

Fort Dunree;

In Bunrana, County Donegal, a military museum giving special emphasis on coastal artillery and military history. During World War II Irish forces were stationed at Fort Dunree to prevent the warring nations violating the country's neutrality. Fort Dunree houses a fascinating display of military memorabilia, large guns and artefacts from the 20th century. Fort Dunree is also rich in wildlife and this is detailed in the Wildlife discovery room in the Saldanha suite.

Newmills Corn and Flax Mills;

The heritage trail begins At Grianan an Aileach – the ancient Temple of the Sun Christianised by St. Patrick. Onwards to Buncrana and the Tullyarvan Mill – a restored corn mill dating from the nineteenth century and today developed as a local craft centre and tourist amenity. The Coast Road heading left at Buncrana Dunree Head, where stands Fort Dunree. Wild Ireland walk among ancient trees and encounter bears, wolves, lynx and wild boar together again in the Irish forest for the first time in thousands of years. Truly spectacular and perfect for a great family day out. Their beautiful lake is home to swans, ducks and even a pair of otters. They've also got a couple of cheeky Monkeys. Take a trail around the rainforest, be delighted with their tales of ancient folklore.

East of the peninsula on the of Lough Foyle is Greencastle, one of Ireland's most important fishing villages. Malin Head (unspoilt beauty!) Take a journey as far north as you can go, and you'll reach the edge of Europe – otherwise known as the wild, rugged and romantic Malin Head. The start (or end, depending on your point of view) of the Wild Atlantic Way, Malin Head has long been renowned for its epic coastal scenery, thriving birdlife and historical curiosities.

Rathmullan;

Boasts a Blue Flag Beach. Located near the harbour is centre home to the Flight of the Earls exhibition which illustrates life and times of the Earls, O' Neill and O'Donnell. East of the peninsula on the aftermath of their flight, which took place in 1607 at Rathmullan, marking a major milestone in the Irish struggle for independence from The English.

Doe Castle;

Is situated about 1 mile off the Carrigart to Creeslough Road. This MacSuibhne castle is protected on three sides by the sea, while on the landward side a moat has been hewn from the rock. Doe Castle sits deep in Sheephaven Bay, in a spectacular location on the shore near Creeslough village. It was a stronghold of the MacSweeney Clan who came to Donegal from Scotland as Gallowglasses (professional fighters).

Errigal Mountain;

Located in the West of Donegal near the Irish speaking parish called Gweedore and it is the tallest peak of the Derryveagh Mountains, the tallest peak in Co. Donegal and the 26th tallest peak in Ireland. Errigal is also the steepest and the highest of the mountain chain called the "Seven Sisters" by the locals. It is well renowned for the pinkish glow of its quartzite in the setting sun and its every changing shape depending on what direction you view it from.
